

SARAH NEUMANN MMS, PA-C

Our passion for beauty has created $160 billion-a-year global industry. Are you in the game?

I am. With over 12 years of professional experience, I educate, advise and entertain on everything beauty. I've been featured in magazines, blogs and TV shows; been awarded 2012's "Best Of" Physician Assistant, Medical Specialist and Skin Care; own a beauty retail store and two dermatology practices (one with natural-based therapies).

I can give you that edge to be a bigger part in one of the world's fastest-growing industries. Let your readers look to you for professional insight, attainable beauty products and even the thousand-dollar-in-your-dreams treatment. For over a decade, thousands of people have been turning to me for professional beauty advice, product regimens and even some off the wall treatments (yes really, certain exercises can help your skin!)... Now let me help you.

I can give you articles, story ideas, new trends, pro-quotes and a little professional edge to get people's attention. Together let's get everyone feeling confident in their skin.

In good skin health ♥ Sarah Neumann MMS, PA-C

"That's why we love gel-based products in the summer. They're better for your skin than lotions and creams when it's hot out because they let your skin breathe, don't clog your pores, and feel lighter!"

"They might not be dressed in tuxes or have a martini in hand, but they're your body's go-to defense in the fight against aging...Their name: Oxidants - antioxidants."

"Dermatologists love Olay Regenerist, it's an easy-to-find and affordable product line. And, it's one of the top skin-care lines you can buy over the counter..."
